

The Ross Pritchard Memorial Fund

was established to commemorate the life of one of the Graphical Paper & Media Union's best known rank and file members

ROSS PRITCHARD

The Trustees of the Fund invite entries to the annual essay competition on a subject dear to Ross's heart, this year:

In the light of changing technologies, what future is there for print as a medium of communication?

Young trade union members in particular are earnestly invited to submit essays (not more than 1,000 words), but submissions from other trade union members will be welcomed. The winning essay will be awarded a prize of £750.

Essays should be submitted by

Monday 30 Sept. 2013 to: RPFM, 1 Camden Hill Road, London SE19 1NX, or megan@gn.apc.org
